

The Annual Parish Meeting/Annual General Meeting/Town Council meeting was held on Tuesday 5th May in the Higginson Room at Court Garden.

Town Mayor, Cllr Neil Marshall was re-elected to serve as Mayor for 2009-2010 and Wycombe District Chairman, Cllr Roger Wilson, was elected as his Deputy. Outgoing Deputy Mayor Cllr Richard Scott paid tribute to Cllr Marshall for the contribution he had made during his previous year and was pleased that he had been re-elected and able to carry through the initiatives he had started. Cllr Scott then handed over the Deputy Mayor's badge to Cllr Wilson.

For the first time at this AGM, the Town Council invited three local organisations to showcase their clubs. The Marlow Camera Club exhibited some of the excellent photographs taken by their members, the Marlow Museum Centre exhibited the date-line of how the Museum had progressed to date, and Archaeology for Marlow exhibited information on their various projects.

Mr John Evans, founder of the Marlow Museum Centre was presented with the key of the new Marlow Museum Centre in the Peacock Room at Court Gardens by Wycombe District Chairman, Cllr Roger Wilson. Town Mayor, Cllr Neil Marshall, presented John Evans with a cheque from Marlow Town Council for £1,500 for the Marlow Museum Centre.
